Class). He resides in Austintown with his wife, Carolyn, with whom he shares two daughters and four grandchildren. He retired in 2008 after 37 years with Johnson Controls and belongs to the American Battlefield Trust, The Friends of the Hunley, Pamplin Historical Park, and the Shenandoah Valley Battlefield Foundation.

Tonight's presentation will showcase battlefields in 13 states from all four years of the Civil War. Jerry took the photos over the past 30 years... as you can see from this image, his battlefield accoutrements include binoculars and a camera case!

For the second month in a row, we will be treated to insights from one of our own! Jerry Arnsberger is our current president and a longtime member of the Mahoning Valley CWRT—since 1990, when the group still met at YSU.

Born in Columbus, Ohio, and raised in Rocky River, Ohio, Jerry is a veteran of the U.S. Navy (Petty Officer 1st

Raffle ticket sales upcoming

Ticket sales for our annual Spring print raffle begin this month. Grand prize is a full-sized, professionally framed and matted print by artist John Paul Strain entitled "Thunderbolt." It depicts John Hunt Morgan and his cavalry. Secondary market value is estimated at $500. This print was donated by round table member Bob Schneider.

Second prize is a two-print set of black-and-white Gettysburg scenes donated by round table member Dan Welch. Third prize is a period print of Harper's Ferry and a photo of the "Sunken Road" at Antietam.

See Judy Sheridan for tickets in February, March, and April. Tickets are one for $5; three for $10; or seven for $20. The drawing will be held in April and the winners need not be present.

Spring "Mosby Bus Tour" Set

The 42nd annual Spring Civil War Mosby Bus Tour, entitled "Mosby and the Gettysburg Campaign," is set for Saturday, June 17, 2023. The guides should be names familiar to our round table membership: Kevin Pawlak and Rob Orrison.

John S. Mosby played an integral role in the Gettysburg campaign. The tour will include stops at Ewell's Chapel, Middleburg, Aldie, Rowser's Ford, and many others. The bus will depart from Truro Anglican Church (10520 Main Street, Fairfax, Virginia, 22030) promptly at 8:30 a.m.

The cost of the bus tour is $80 for members of the Stuart-Mosby Historical Society and $90 for non-members. The tour does not include lunch; lunch will be on your own.

To sign up, you can call Rob Orrison at (703) 431-2869 or send an email to orrison76@hotmail.com.
