East Liverpool native, and long-time member of the Mahoning Valley CWRT, Timothy R. Brookes has been fascinated by the Civil War since he was 5 years old. A retired attorney, Tim graduated from Kent State University in 1976 and The Ohio State University College of Law in 1979. He served as President of the East Liverpool Historical Society from 1987 until 2024 and remains a Board member. He is primarily interested in Civil War photographs of common soldiers, especially those from Columbiana County. He and his wife, Linda, live in East Liverpool and have one adult daughter, Allison.

Tim's interest in the story of Jacob Shenkel started with a chance purchase at a garage sale in Chester, West Virginia. Along with a rare World War I uniform, the family conducting the sale had four identified tintype photos of Shenkel, whom Tim recognized as an East Liverpool soldier who fought in the 62nd Pennsylvania regiment for three years. Later discoveries included Shenkel's diary, which disclosed his involvement with certain photographic mysteries that have kept Tim on the "Shenkel Trail" to this day.
